“ Margaret, Meghan and Brittany,

We are still unable to fully express how sorry we are for your loss of a supportive and loving husband and father.

Unfortunately we will not be able to join you for the Celebration of Brent's Life on November 24. While the travel distance between our home and yours is great, Brent will always be near in our hearts.

Brent was sincere, friendly, kind, helpful, hard working, observant and blessed with an innate ability to make a commentary, and tell or retell a simply story, with eloquence, wit and humility.

Our interactions with Brent always left us feeling good about ourselves, life and humanity.

Our winters in Florida will not be the same without Brent. He will be missed and always fondly remembered.

“ Dear Margaret, Kim, Dave & families,
Hearing about Brent was heartbreaking. I am so sorry. I fondly remember the great times we had at The Barrelworks, Springsteen concerts and parties at the farm. My thoughts are with you during this sad time and always. Love, Pep

“ Margaret, Kim and families

- A prince
- A true Canadian original
- Neil Young's younger brother

- The correct answer is "D" all of the above

- If I had a Thesaurus it would be working overtime
- Kind, compassionate, willful, daring, charming, creative, inspiring, Defied convention
- Brent touched everyone he reached
- But most of all he was cherished and loved

- I have to ask Neil Young in his song "For the Turnstiles" to finish This letter

"All the great explorers are now in granite laid,
Under white sheets
For the great unveiling
At the big parade.
You can really
Learn a lot that way
It will change you
In the middle of the day...
For the turnstiles
For the turnstiles ..."

Margaret, Kim and families
Deepest sympathies
My thoughts are with you

“ Margaret and family,
We are so saddened at the loss of such a 'prince' of a man. Our thoughts are with you and wish you peace and healing. We are so very sorry for the loss of your husband, friend and father of your children.
We have many fond memories of both you and Brent as neighbours and friends. We will smile at the thought of Brent's smiling face and great sense of humour. He will be missed by all that knew this generous and truly good man.
Our deepest sympathy to you and your family.

“ Margaret, Kim and families

I heard the sad news today from Brian. Brent always took the time to call out to Brian and I at least once a year. I was really hoping that he and Dexter could make the trip out for a visit one summer to BC. So many good memories of weekends in Guelph with Brent and the boys while they were at university. Also at the "Beach" for several (mostly) wild weekends. Brent was a great guy and a good friend. I will miss him.
Rest in peace buddy.

Our thoughts are with you all, love John and Pearl Starkiewicz
